first SaaS-based soft collection business solution

Loxon has implemented its SaaS-based Soft Collection Business Solution at Porsche Versicherungs AG. Hungary.

With the Loxon self-service application, the insurance company has expanded its existing customer interfaces with a new digital channel. The platform allows customers to review their entire insurance portfolio, as well as make instant bank card payments to replace previous account-based settlements. Not only is this a great relief for insurees, as they can avoid a lot of unnecessary inconvenience, but it also saves a lot of resources for Porsche by greatly reducing paper-based processes.

The implementation is a significant milestone for Loxon, as besides representing the most recent extension of its business and technological knowledge, the company has also managed to take its operational capabilities to a new level. The white label application runs in AWS cloud, which enables a rapid implementation and provides additional benefits for the customer, which include cost and other resource savings.

Commenting on the milestone, Zoltán Nánai, Chief Product Officer at Loxon said: Our major goal is to be ambassadors for the digital transformation of financial institutions with our vision being to make finances easy for everyone. The new SaaS-based operation enables us to provide our solutions in a quick and cost-effective way to our customers and seamlessly extend them with new, future-proof enhancements. This implementation at Porsche Versicherungs AG. Hungary was a great experience for us and we are ready to expand our services in this direction.

“Introducing Loxon’s application is a great step for us towards digitalisation – said Krisztián Fülöp, Head of Branch Office at Porsche Versicherungs AG. Hungary. – Our aim is to make administration convenient for our customers, and this new platform offers a transparent and easily accessible interface for managing their portfolios. This not only saves a lot of time and simplifies the life of our customers, but also saves us significant costs by eliminating a lot of paperwork. Galvanised by the success of the implementation of Loxon’s tailored-to-brand application, we expect to extend our current cooperation in the future.”
