

PRESS RELEASE | BUDAPEST, OCTOBER 2023

Loxon ranks #53 in the Chartis RiskTech100 and wins Customer Satisfaction award for third straight year

Loxon, a leading business solution provider, is thrilled to declare yet another remarkable accomplishment in the 2024 Chartis RiskTech100 list. Loxon secured 53rd position, in recognition of another year of outstanding contributions to the risk technology industry. This year also marks the third straight win for Loxon in the Customer Satisfaction category.

The Chartis RiskTech100 ranking is a prestigious annual assessment of top technology providers in the risk technology market. This recognition reflects Loxon's continued dedication to delivering innovative and effective solutions amid an ever-evolving financial technology landscape.

Commenting on this achievement, Tamás Erni, CEO of Loxon, expressed his pride in the company's consistent success: "We are honoured to have once again secured a position on the Chartis RiskTech 100 list in and to be recognized as a leader in Customer Satisfaction. The fact that we have won the Customer Satisfaction award third times in a row makes it crystal clear that our customers are our raison d'être and serving them is our utmost priority. This accomplishment reaffirms our ongoing commitment to providing the best possible solutions and services to our clients. This accomplishment is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the entire Loxon team."

"Loxon continues to expand its product coverage throughout credit lifecycle management, covering areas including lending operations, credit portfolio management, credit risk and analytics," said Anish Shah, Research Director at Chartis. "This expansion across retail and wholesale lending, supported by an appropriate technology infrastructure, is reflected in Loxon's performance in this year's RiskTech100."

Loxon's exemplary performance in the Customer Satisfaction category underscores its ability to deliver exceptional value to its clients and maintain lasting relationships. This recognition demonstrates the positive impact of the company's tailored solutions on its customers' businesses.

Loxon remains at the forefront of the industry by combining cutting-edge technology, exceptional service, and a commitment to customer satisfaction. The company looks forward to continuing its mission to deliver innovative, integrated business solutions that simplify credit management for financial organizations worldwide.
